

COXEY WILL DELIVER ADDRESS TOMORROW

Receives Permission of Vice President and Speaker to Talk on Capitol Steps.

From the steps on the east front of the Capitol, which were his goal more than twenty years ago, when he came to Washington with a larger "army" of unemployed, and which he did not attain, "General" Jacob S. Coxey, leader of a second "Coxey's Army," this time having a numerical strength of one officers and men, will, tomorrow afternoon, deliver an address which on the other occasion he was not permitted to utter.

"General" Coxey and his "army" reached Washington last night after a strenuous march from Massillon. He and his family are quartered at a hotel in Georgetown, while the "army" have temporary quarters in a stable there.

A letter, addressed to Vice President Marshall, asking for permission to use the Capitol steps as a rostrum, was received by the Vice President from Coxey this morning. The permission was granted by both the Vice President and Speaker Clark, to whom it was referred. Superintendent Wood was directed to see that "General" Coxey was permitted to occupy the steps at noon.

Plans for delivering several speeches in Washington during the next two or three days are being made today by Coxey. He came to Washington to impress upon Congress, he said, the necessity for passing three laws, a new banking system for working men and farmers; a non-interest bond law, and Federal ownership of telephone and railroad lines law.

While in Washington, the "army" will attend the conferences of officers of the Association of Unemployed, on Friday and Saturday, called by James H. Howe, the "millionaire hobo."

"There isn't a soft spot in the 482 miles from Massillon to Washington," boasted the "privates" of Coxey's "army" from their soft seats on tales of hay in B. Kraft's livery barn in Georgetown earlier in the day.

"If the pavement is any harder than the roads, Georgetown will be the end of my march," added another, whose shoes seemed misshapen from his hike across country.

Of the 25 men who left Massillon, Ohio, on April 15 for their march to the Capitol, only nine remain, and of that number only two stand out as regular soldiers in the cause. "These two are Paul Anderson, a nineteen-year-old youth, who, by virtue of the fact that he is the only one left besides the 'general' from Massillon, has the rank of captain, and William M. Montgomery, the only member of the small band who accompanied the 'general' on his march here twenty years ago. Montgomery, who joined the 'army' at Canton, Ohio, upon his arrival here, after walking 24 miles, he announced that he was sixty-two years young. Anderson maintains he is the only skilled laborer in the company, having a union card as glass blower.

The "army" will remain in Washington until next Monday, when it will present each man with a ticket and Pullman reservation for the city in which he joined the "army" or for Massillon, Ohio, where he will be given employment in Coxey's sand quarry. Coxey will also arrange to ship his mule, mule, and pony back to Massillon, and by the middle of the week his family will return to their Ohio home.

During his stay here Coxey will attend the conference of officers of associations of unemployed Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. He also intends to make several street speeches, having made one last night at the corner of Thirty-second and M streets, where he urged Georgetown citizens to join his "army." In his speech upon Congress the necessity of passing three laws, one providing a banking system that will lend money to workingmen and farmers, another to adopt a non-interest bond plan, and a third to provide for the purchase by the Government of the railroads and telephone lines, to furnish these to the people at the cost of operation.

Captain Explains Desertions.

In explaining the desertions from the "army," Capt. Paul Anderson said some were too lazy to walk and others got drunk and then got fired. "The general," he said, "would not allow a drunken man in the line of march. At Homestead and McKeesport, Pa., he fired both the lieutenants because they were 'messed,' and the ski-pilot, his son, J. S. Wilson, got ranned at McKeesport when he took too much fire-water. John Black, who is with us today, got drunk at Pittsburgh, and spent ten days in jail, but he caught up with us at Hancock."

Anderson explained that the only privileged characters in the "army" were George Lawis, the bass player, the drum from Alliance, Ohio, to Washington, and John Black, the bugler. These two accomplished musicians can drum, and Coxey added several meetings en route. Each man averaged three pairs of shoes for the hike, and at Massillon Coxey shipped all with new shoes to wear in Washington.

CADETS WHO FAINTED ARE IN SCHOOL TODAY

No serious results are noted today in the cases of eight high school cadets who fainted during the review and parade held on the White Lot Ellipse yesterday. The boys are about their duties today as though nothing had happened.

Nervous excitement is attributed as the cause of their illness, by Dr. William E. Hudson of the Medical Corps of the District National Guard, who took charge yesterday with a squad of guardsmen. The extreme youth of the eight boys coupled with the fact that they were standing rigidly at attention for a long time is thought to be the reason for their fainting.

Paul Frizzell, of 68 Thirtieth street northwest was the first to drop out yesterday. Wilmer Savage, of 52 Maryland avenue northeast, in Company I, Central High School, dropped out a few moments after Frizzell. Within ten minutes six more boys were down, and had to take treatment. They were Herbert Allen, fourteen, 124 Bryant street, Robert Dawe, thirteen, 320 Nineteenth street northwest, A. J. Phillips, Sergeant road, Brookland, and Harry Woodward, fifteen, 194 Seventeenth street, Vernon Clark, a member of Company A, Central High School, of 75 M street northwest, and C. E. Anadale, corporal of Company E, Eastern High School, living at 222 New Hampshire avenue, were the others.

Reichstag Session Ends Amid Great Disorder
BERLIN, May 20.—The reichstag closed its session today in great disorder, almost a riot. The trouble started when the socialists remained seated during the time-honored "Hoch der Kaiser." The government members rebuked the socialists for their discourtesy to his imperial majesty and the socialists shouted back, leaving the building in a great uproar.

BLAMES WILSON FOR DEATHS IN MEXICO
Former Ambassador to Southern Republic Has His Criticism Read in Senate.

The reign of horror and death in Mexico could have been avoided by the recognition of Huerta, former Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson declared in a letter to Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, read to the Senate today by that member. Wilson declared that he had recommended this recognition both to the Taft and Wilson Administrations and asserted that it would have been justified in the cause of humanity. He

NAZARETH ACADEMY SUPERIOR PRAISES FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE
In a recent letter the Mother Superior of Nazareth Academy, says: "I have nothing except praise for Father John's Medicine. Several of the sisters have been taking it and all have been benefited by it." (Signed) Mother Antonette, Nazareth Academy, Concordia, Kansas.

It is worth while knowing that Father John's Medicine is a safe medicine to take as a tonic and body builder, because it does not contain any alcohol or dangerous drugs, but is composed entirely of pure and wholesome, nourishing food elements, which build new flesh and strength. Children, as well as older people find renewed health and strength from its use.—Adv.
